

If the employee's new Step equals 3 or 4, then WIG: Waiting Period End Date shall equal the Effective Date plus 104 weeks minus 1 day, and WIG Date: Next shall be set equal to the next pay period beginning date after the WIG: Waiting Period End Date.

If the employee's new Step equals 5, then WIG Date: Next and WIG: Waiting Period End Date shall be initialized to null.

Federal Wage System Calculation (Pay Plans XP, XL, XS, XD, XN):

If the employee's new Step equals 1, then WIG: Waiting Period End Date shall equal the Effective Date plus 26 weeks minus 1 day, and WIG Date: Next shall be set equal to the next pay period beginning date after the WIG: Waiting Period End Date.

If the employee's new Step equals 2, then WIG: Waiting Period End Date shall equal the Effective Date plus 78 weeks minus 1 day, and WIG Date: Next shall be set equal to the next pay period beginning date after the WIG: Waiting Period End Date.

If the employee's new Step equals 3, then WIG Date: Next and WIG: Waiting Period End Date shall be initialized to null.

3.1.2.1.2-217

The capability shall be provided for the Pay Rate Determinant to be determined on any change in Grade: Current or Step and the action being processed is not equal to 001 or 002 as follows.

If PRD equals 7, then PRD should be set to 0.

If PRD equals 5, then PRD should be set to 6.

3.1.2.1.2-218

The capability shall be provided to initialize to null Coop: Date Entered Program, Coop: Return to School Date, Coop: Return to Duty Date, Coop: Intended Degree Field, Coop: Intended Degree Level, Coop: Intended Graduation Year, Coop: School Code, and Coop: GPA if the NOAC is a conversion and the Position: Type changes from 0 or 1 to something other than 0 or 1 with optional override.

3.1.2.1.2-219

The capability shall be provided to set the TSP: Employee Status Code to "I" if the action being processed is an accession (1, A), the Retirement Plan equals K, M, or N, and the SCD: Leave equals the Effective Date of action. The user shall be able to override the value set by the system.

3.1.2.1.2-220

The capability shall be provided to generate Organization: Assigned Level One, Organization: Assigned Level Two, Organization: Assigned Level Three, and Organization: Assigned Level Four based on a hierarchical structure if the employee's Organization: Assigned code is identified as structured. This technique

3.1.2.2.3 Thrift Savings Plan Eligibility

NPPS shall provide the capability to produce a suspended TSP Eligibility transaction (NOAC 943) for each eligible employee based on a user-supplied beginning and ending date range.

INPUTS

The inputs for TSP Eligibility are listed in Appendix D, Personnel Mass Action Inputs.

PROCESSES

3.1.2.2.3-100

The capability shall be provided to determine an employee's eligibility criteria for transaction creation as follows.

- TSP: Eligibility Date must be equal to or between the selection beginning and ending dates supplied by the user.
- Employee must be active (Duty Status not equal to Z).

The capability shall be provided for the following in the creation of a TSP Eligibility transaction for each employee.

3.1.2.2.3-101

Effective Date shall be set equal to TSP: Eligibility Date.

3.1.2.2.3-102

TSP: Employee Status Date shall be set equal to TSP: Eligibility Date.

3.1.2.2.3-103

TSP: Eligibility Date shall be initialized to null.

3.1.2.2.3-104

~~If the TSP: Employee Status Code = 'W', set the~~ TSP: Employee Status Code to 'Y', ~~else shall be set equal to set the TSP: Employee Status Code to 'E'.~~

OUTPUTS

The following outputs shall result from the TSP Eligibility process.

3.1.2.2.3-200

Generation and suspension of NOAC 943 for each employee record meeting the eligibility criteria.

3.1.2.2.3-300

Creation of a TSP Letter for each eligible employee in accordance with Core Report 254 at user's option.

data only when both city tax alternate amount and percentage or both county tax alternate amount and percentage are not greater than zero.

3.1.3.1.1-1306

The capability shall be provided to create former city and county tax information to support the production of year-end W2s when a current city or county tax withholding is changed to a new city or county tax withholding or when a current city or county tax withholding is canceled. A maximum of three former city and three former county tax information sets shall be provided. Former city and county tax information shall be in accordance with the inputs specified for withholding and earnings associated with regular earnings in Appendix F for former city and county tax actions.

3.1.3.1.1-1400 TSP Payments

The capability shall be provided for biweekly employee deductions for Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) and for biweekly government matching contributions and for ~~biweekly government automatic contributions the distribution of these contributions among the three TSP investment funds.~~

3.1.3.1.1-1401

The capability shall be provided to enter and maintain TSP data as specified in table TRETIR in Appendix J for use in TSP transaction editing, deduction computation, and reporting.

3.1.3.1.1-1402

The capability shall be provided to establish, modify, and cancel TSP deductions. TSP transaction inputs shall be edited as specified in Appendix F, and transactions failing the edit criteria shall be rejected.

3.1.3.1.1-1403

The capability shall be provided to accept the establishment of a TSP deduction only when the employee's TSP status is Y or W, indicating election to participate.

3.1.3.1.1-1404

The capability shall be provided to accept the establishment or modification of a TSP deduction only when a TSP deduction percentage or a TSP deduction amount are entered, but not both.

3.1.3.1.1-1405

The capability shall be provided to accept the establishment or modification of a TSP deduction only when the employee fund distribution rates equal 100 percent.

3.1.3.1.1-1406

The capability shall be provided to accept the establishment or modification of a TSP deduction only when the employee fund distribution rates are in increments of five percent.

3.1.3.1.1-1407

The capability shall be provided to initialize the TSP Distribution Rates (G, F, and C Funds) to null during the pay period initialization process for all non-participating CSRS employees (TSP: Employee Status Code not equal Y).

- Federal Employee Health Benefits (FEHB)
 - FEHB (Current Plan)
 - FEHB Government Contribution (Current Plan)
 - FEHB (Prior Plan)
 - FEHB Government Contribution (Prior Plan)
- Federal Employee Group Life Insurance (FEGLI)
 - Family Optional Coverage
 - Optional A Coverage
 - Additional Optional B Coverage
 - FEGLI Government Contribution

3.1.3.1.2.1-500 TSP Adjustments

The capability shall be provided to establish and modify adjustments to an employee's TSP deductions and government contributions. Adjustment capabilities shall be provided as follows.

- Positive adjustments to the current pay period TSP deduction to deduct and submit deduction amounts omitted in prior periods. A TSP record type 1~~64~~ for submission to the National Finance Center shall be generated to include this adjustment plus the current period deduction, if any. ~~An effective pay date equal to the value of the current TSP Efddate shall be generated by NPPS for this adjustment. The effective date of the makeup contributions is the pay date that the contributions should have been made.~~
- Negative adjustments to the current pay period TSP deduction to refund deduction amounts erroneously deducted and submitted in prior periods. A TSP record type 2~~64~~ for submission to the National Finance Center shall be generated. Up to 26 separate adjustments shall be allowed. Each adjustment entry shall require an effective date that is equal to an effective pay date (a valid TSP Efddate) prior to the current pay date. When supporting history data is present, the adjustment amount must be equal to or less than the original TSP deduction plus original TSP adjustment(s) for the effective pay period.

3.1.3.1.2.2 Accumulations Adjustments

The capability shall be provided for the adjustment of accumulations of dollars and hours paid and leave accounting accumulations.

3.1.3.1.2.2-100 Accumulations of Dollars and Hours Paid Adjustments

The capability shall be provided for the adjustment of accumulation of earnings, deductions, leave costs, and hours worked.

3.1.3.1.2.2-101

Accumulations adjustments of dollars and hours paid transaction inputs shall be edited as specified in Appendix F, and transactions failing the edit criteria shall be rejected.

3.1.3.1.2.2-102

The capability shall be provided to establish an adjustment to accumulations of earnings, deductions, leave costs, and hours worked only when the value of the adjusted field after adjustment is positive.

3.1.3.1.2.2-103

The capability shall be provided to automatically apply adjustments to earnings and deductions accumulations associated with HIT, FICA, and federal, state, city, and county taxable earnings, TSP deductions, FEHB deductions and tax withholdings when current pay period permanent change of station earnings and the associated tax withholdings are entered.

3.1.3.1.2.2-104

The capability shall be provided to establish and modify limited appointment accumulations adjustments.

3.1.3.1.2.2-105

The capability shall be provided to establish and modify positive TSP record type 464 adjustments for submission to the National Finance Center to resubmit previously rejected TSP record type 164s or for makeup contributions that are attributable to a back pay award or other retroactive pay adjustment. Up to 26 separate adjustments shall be allowed. These adjustments shall not affect employee pay.

3.1.3.1.2.2-106

The capability shall be provided to enter and modify YTD, QTD, and MTD earnings and deductions accumulations that were saved for a maximum of three former taxing states when the taxing entity was changed to another taxing entity or the tax withholding requirement was canceled.

3.1.3.1.2.2-107

The capability shall be provided to allow the establishment or modification of former state tax data only when the state tax earnings, deductions, and state tax code are present.

3.1.3.1.2.2-108

The capability shall be provided to enter and modify YTD, QTD, and MTD earnings and deductions accumulations that were saved for a maximum of three former taxing cities and counties when the taxing entity was changed to another taxing entity or the tax withholding requirement was canceled.

biweekly HIT deduction for employees with a Retirement Plan of 1, 2, 4, 6, C, E, K, M, R, T, or N by first subtracting the FEHB deduction from the biweekly gross earnings then multiply by the statutory HIT rate in table TRETIR in Appendix J.

If FEHB Tax Exempt Waiver (TEW) indicator is 'Y' (meaning employee does waive the FEHB Tax Exemption), the capability shall be provided to compute the biweekly HIT deduction for employees with a Retirement Plan of 1, 2, 4, 6, C, E, K, M, R, T, or N by multiplying the biweekly gross earning by the statutory HIT rate in table TRETIR in Appendix J.

If FEHB Tax Exempt Waiver (TEW) indicator is blank, compute the biweekly HIT government contribution by first subtracting the FEHB deduction from the biweekly gross earnings then multiply by the HIT statutory contribution rate.

If FEHB Tax Exempt Waiver (TEW) indicator is 'Y' then compute the biweekly HIT government contribution by multiplying the biweekly gross earnings by the HIT statutory contribution rate.

3.1.3.2.4-200

The definition of base earnings for this process includes earnings from locality adjustment pay, standby premium pay, AUO pay, and availability pay, but it does not include additions to earnings from adjustments to continuing pay as defined in Paragraph 3.1.3.1.2.1-200.

The capability shall be provided to compute the biweekly TSP employee deduction for participating employees (TSP: Employee Status Code = Y or W), not to exceed the limit (Year Max Ded) specified in table TRETIR in Appendix J, as follows.

TSP Employee Deduction

(For reemployed annuitants) TSP computations are based on the Scheduled Adjusted Basic Pay or Salary Cap if lower.

A x (B or C) for employees who elect TSP rate or D for employees who elect a whole dollar amount

Where:

- A = Elected employee rate
- B = Computed biweekly base earnings (Adj Basic Pay / 2087 x biweekly)
- C = If a Reemployed Annuitant (Annuitant Indicator 1, 4, 5, A, C, or E), Sch Adj Basic Pay or Salary Cap if lower in Pay Master will be used (Sch Adj Basic Pay or Salary Cap if lower / 2087 x biweekly base hours)
- D = TSP: Elected Amount of Deduction

3.1.3.2.4-201

The definition of base earnings for this process includes earnings from locality adjustment pay, AUO pay, and availability pay, but it does not include additions to earnings from adjustments to continuing pay as defined in Paragraph 3.1.3.1.2.1-200.

The capability shall be provided to deduct the requested TSP employee deduction up to the following limits.

- For FERS employees, up to 10 percent of the employee's biweekly salary (Adjusted Basic Pay + AUO + Availability Pay, except for Reemployed Annuitants (Annuitant Indicator A, C, or E) then Scheduled Adjusted Basic Pay or Salary Cap if lower in Pay Master File is used). For Federal Wage System employees (NASA Classification Code = 1*) who have received hazardous pay in the current pay period (Hazardous Earnings: B/W greater than zero), the computed biweekly salary shall include Hazardous Earnings: B/W (including Hazardous Earnings: Adj B/W).
- For non-FERS employees (CSRS, FICA, and no retirement plan), up to 5 percent of the employee's biweekly salary (Adjusted Basic Pay + AUO + Availability Pay, except for Reemployed Annuitants (Annuitant Indicator 1, 4, or 5) then Scheduled Adjusted Basic Pay or Salary Cap if lower in Pay Master File is used). For Federal Wage System employees (NASA Classification Code = 1*) who have received hazardous pay in the current pay period (Hazardous Earnings: B/W greater than zero), the computed biweekly salary shall include Hazardous Earnings: B/W (including Hazardous Earnings: Adj B/W).
- For all participating employees, total annual deductions shall not be allowed to exceed the indexed IRS limit.

3.1.3.2.4-202

The definition of base earnings for this process includes earnings from locality adjustment pay, AUO pay, and availability pay, but it does not include additions to earnings from adjustments to continuing pay as defined in Paragraph 3.1.3.1.2.1-200.

The capability shall be provided to compute the government basic contribution to the employee's plan for eligible FERS employees (Retirement Plan of K, M, or N and TSP: Employee Status Code is not I, W or S) at one percent of the employee's biweekly salary. For Reemployed Annuitants (Annuitant Indicator 1, 4, 5, A, C, or E) Scheduled Adjusted Basic Pay or Salary Cap if lower in Pay Master is used. For Federal Wage System employees (NASA Classification Code = 1*) who have received hazardous pay in the current pay period (Hazardous Earnings: B/W greater than zero), the computed biweekly salary shall include Hazardous Earnings: B/W (including Hazardous Earnings: Adj B/W).

3.1.3.2.4-203

The definition of base earnings for this process includes earnings from locality adjustment pay, AUO pay, and availability pay, but it does not include additions to earnings from adjustments to continuing pay as defined in Paragraph 3.1.3.1.2.1-200. For Federal Wage System employees (NASA Classification Code = 1*) who have received hazardous pay in the current pay period (Hazardous Earnings: B/W greater than zero), the computed biweekly base earnings shall include Hazardous Earnings: B/W (including Hazardous Earnings: Adj B/W) and C, as computed below, shall be computed using the hazardous differential.

The capability shall be provided to compute the government matching contribution to the eligible FERS employee's (Retirement Plan of K, M, or N and TSP: Employee Status Code is not I, W or S) plan as follows.

Government Matching Contribution

$A (B \text{ or } C) + D (B \text{ or } C) \times .5$

Where:

- A = Employee deduction percent, not to exceed 3%
- B = Computed biweekly base earnings if salary is not capped
- C = Scheduled salary / 2087 x biweekly base hours, if salary is capped
- D = Employee deduction percent - 3%, not to exceed 2% nor less than zero

When the employee TSP deduction is reduced to accommodate the indexed IRS limit, the government matching contribution shall be computed using a recomputed employee TSP percent. The recomputed employee TSP percent shall be computed as follows.

Recomputed Employee TSP Percent

Reduced Employee Deduction / (B or C), as defined above.

~~3.1.3.2.4-204~~

~~The capability shall be provided to compute the G, F, and C Fund distribution of employee deductions, one percent government basic contribution and government matching contribution of TSP, as follows.~~

~~Employee TSP Deduction and Contribution Distributions~~

~~$A \times B$~~

~~Where:~~

- ~~A = Biweekly deduction and/or government contribution~~
- ~~B = Elected rate of distribution for the individual fund~~

~~3.1.3.2.4-300~~

If FEHB Tax Exempt Waiver (TEW) indicator is blank (meaning employee does not waive the FEHB Tax Exemption), the capability shall be provided to compute the biweekly federal tax withholding deduction as follows.

Notice of Eligibility for the Thrift Savings Plan

TO: A

You are now eligible to begin or resume contributions in the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP). During this open season, you may begin participating in the TSP by designating a percent of your salary or a whole dollar amount.

If you have not previously contributed, effective C a TSP account will be established for you and NASA will begin making automatic contributions to your account each pay period equal to 1% of your base pay.

To make an open season election you have two options. You may make an electronic election by accessing the Employee Express web site at www.employeeexpress.gov. You will need your EE pin number previously sent to you by the Office of Personnel Management to make an election. Or you may complete the attached TSP Form-1 and return it to

D by the end of open season. You need to complete a TSP-50 and submit it to the Thrift Board to allocate your contributions among the five available funds.

Where to get more information about the TSP: The attached booklet, "Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for Federal Employees," describes the TSP in detail. Please read it before making a TSP election. You may access the TSP website at www.tsp.gov for more information.

Also attached is the flyer "Open Season Update". This flyer contains basic information about this TSP open season.

If you have questions about the TSP, contact E .

DATA ELEMENTS:

- A. Employee Name - Last, Gen, First, MI
- B. Organization: Assigned
- C. TSP Enrollment Date - Data value found in Personnel Control Table
- D. Office Mail Code - Data Value found in Personnel Control Table
- E. Office Contact - Data Value found in Personnel Control Table
- F. If the user designated a Facility Code, the Facility Name will be derived from the Facility Table.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Include all employees with the following criteria:

- User selected FERS Notice
- Installation code equal user designated center code
- Facility Code equals user designated Facility Code, if entered
- Suspended Nature of Action Code equals 943 with Source Code equal 'P'
- Retirement Plan = K, M, or N

You will need your EE pin number previously sent to you by the Office of Personnel Management to make an election. Or you may complete the attached TSP Form-1 and return it to

D by the end of open season. You need to complete a TSP-50 and submit it to the Thrift Board to allocate your contributions among the five available funds.

Where to get more information about the TSP: The attached booklet, "Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for Federal Employees," describes the TSP in detail. Please read it before making a TSP election. You may access the TSP website at www.tsp.gov for more information.

Also attached is the flyer "Open Season Update". This flyer contains basic information about this TSP open season.

If you have questions about the TSP, contact E .

Thrift Savings Plan Distribution Contribution (TSP) Section:

~~There are currently three distribution plans available to Government employees. The categories are as follows:~~

- ~~—— G = Government Securities Investment Fund~~
- ~~—— F = Fixed Income Index Investment Fund~~
- ~~—— C = Common Stock Index Investment Fund~~

Employees who are in the Civil Service Retirement System will not have Basic or Matching distributions.

~~There are two categories on the Leave and Earning Statement which are listed; but will be used for future funds. They are as follows:~~

- ~~—— S = Future Category~~
- ~~—— I = Future Category~~
